

Deposit money in Tehran

All international students have to pay tuition fees at the Meli Bank of the university branch.

- Please ensure that you quote your student's full name, passport number and 10-digit student ID number and details of what is being paid on the payment receipt or we will be unable to allocate your payment to your student account.
- After payment, students are required to submit their receipts to the financial office and get the new receipt registered in SIPAD from the financial affairs.
- It is necessary to have FIDA Code (FARAGIR Code) to perform banking operations.
- It is mandatory to have a passport with you to deposit money in the bank.
- Bank working hours are from 8:00 AM to 1:00 PM and the account information is as follows:
